Lyon County Education Association Buys Books

The English as a Second Language Students at Fernley Elementary were treated to free books at the Spring Book Fair with the award of a Mini-Grant from the local education association. The PTA at Fernley Elementary matched the $200 the association awarded with another $200 in free books so that all the students in the ELL Program in second through 5th grade were able to pick a brand new free book of their choice at the fair. The students were really thrilled to take home a brand new book that they got to pick out and keep for their own. Many ELL students have no books in their home to read, so this award was a special treat for the kids!

Thank you Lyon County Education Association for allowing the students to have new books. Your Mini-Grant Process of awarding teachers across the county money to help us teach our students with innovative ways is one of the ways our association helps teachers get materials in their classrooms. The new forms to apply are in the December and the January Newsletters. All members have a chance to earn one of the grants if they have a great idea. Good Luck! Mini-Grant winner, Jane Claar thanks LCEA.
